Treasurer

Hunts would typically break even or less without the Cash balance about $12,500
Part of this will pay for part of welcome meal & decor

Club Tax Status:

We are incorporated in NC
We have a tax id number and will be official with IRS about January

2017 National Report –

Welcome party – By Michael

3 hr. live entertainment –

Ethan Uslan classically trained pianist plays classical music as ragtime

Menu chosen

Asks if there is anything that the club doesn't want money to go toward if there is still money left over in budget?

Mary responded: Food, part of directions, entertainment

What else they may spend it on?

10 x 12 step & repeat banner

would run $150-$250

Can have up to 3 logos on it:

National logo, Carolina club logo, national logo

Whose property would banner be?

Probably belong to who paid for it

Carolina PBGV

Paul suggested if we do meet the breeds, it would be a good backdrop

Gary makes motion that we pay for the banner for the welcome party and second by Paul – up to $250

Passed unanimously

Trophies – By Beverly & Bob

Brought samples to show

Beverly will post a picture of the trophies

Hotel “rabbit hunt” at motel after welcome party

Has made some small scented stuffed rabbits that will be hidden around hotel where dogs can go. She asks that when you have found one you refrain from finding others until everyone has found one.
