- Was the event secretary on site during the event? Yes
 - If not, who was in charge in their absence? N/A
- What was the condition of the grounds for the event?
 - Saturday was a bright, clear skied day. There was enough wind to make the field conditions moderately dry, and made it difficult for some dogs to find odor and stay on pursuits for very long. The field was well-maintained, and the rabbits were plentiful.
- Additional comments:
 - Members of the Tarheel Beagle Club provided breakfast and lunch to the hunt participants for a small fee. The food was very good, and included eggs, sausage, gravy and biscuits for breakfast, and fried chicken for lunch.
 - Dinner was prepared by Phyllis and Jill and featured lasagna, salad, and garlic bread. Sharon brought dessert from a local bakery. Dinner was provided free of charge to all attendees as a thank you to everyone who pitched in over the weekend. We shared good conversation and great food.
- Were any dogs injured during the event? No
 - If so, describe the injury. N/A
 - Did the dog see a vet? N/A
- Were there any incidents that required a bench hearing? No
 - If so, please complete a full report of the event and minutes of any hearing reporting names and addresses of all involved on a separate sheet. N/A

HUNTING TEST

CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT

(One Report required for each day of event.)

Date of test: 3/12/2023 Location of Test: Tarheel Beagle Club

- Start time of the event. 8AM End time of the event. 5PM
- Number of hounds tested. 23 dogs entered. 2 reported absent, 21 dogs started, 14 qualified. Allowed for consolidation (With handler approval) from 7 runs to 6 runs.
- Were you, the chairperson, on site during the entire event? Yes
 - If not, who was in charge in your absence? N/A
- Was the event secretary on site during the event? Yes
 - If not, who was in charge in their absence? N/A
- What was the condition of the grounds for the event?
 - Weather on Sunday was cold and rainy throughout the day. Rain varied from a light drizzle to moderate rain. Odor was in abundance, and many dogs were giving voice within a few minutes of being on the field from the amount of tracks. Many dogs were able to pursue rabbits for further distances thanks to the rain.
- Additional comments:
 - Keith and Abby from Tarheel Beagle Club provided food this day, and the meals were again well-received by the hunt attendees. Hunt attendees thanked Keith and their club for their hospitality during our event during our morning meeting.
- Were any dogs injured during the event? No
 - If so, describe the injury. N/A
 - Did the dog see a vet? N/A
- Were there any incidents that required a bench hearing? No
